

Shape My Soul

Words and Music: Kaylea Fearn

Suggested order - V1 C V2 Cx2

Verse 1

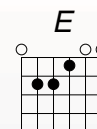

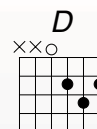

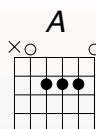

I've come in from the wilderness
Tempted and confused
Destroyed by what I have seen on the news
I've come into Your house again
I asked, I knocked, You let me in Again I make the choice to worship You

Verse 2

The leading of Your Spirit
Takes me far from here
But Your holy presence whispers in my ear
Nourished by Your Word, oh Lord
You're using me, though I am flawed
Bless my life and use it to Your will

Chorus

Revive me, sustain me
Only Your love can change me
Come into my life and make me whole
Teach me, release me
Lord, it won't be easy
But I'm ready for Your hand to shape my soul

About Shape My Soul

"This song is about taking the time to reconnect with God after times in the "wilderness", a theme that is strong in the first part of Matthew's gospel."
