

Easy answers

♩ = 113

Robin Mann

1. When ea - sy an - swers come to ques - tions
 2. Di - sas - ter strikes a - gain, we ask you
 3. O God of ev - 'ry space, my heart it

why, we look for God to hear us - there's no re - ply.
 why. Why don't you ev - er an - swer be - fore we die?
 cries. For when I start to ques - tion you terr - i - fy!

In front or close be - hind me, you're nev - er seen.
 Rich peo - ple have the pow - er, live long and well.
 The dark - ness weighs u - pon me, it holds me down.

If I could ev - er find you, what would you
 Their chil - dren play in safe - ty, they hear no
 Your thoughts are way be - yond me and si - lent

say or mean?
 tol - ling bell.
 is your sound.

- | | | |
|--|--|---|
| 1. When easy answers come
 To questions why
 We look for God to hear us -
 There's no reply.
 In front or close behind me,
 You're never seen.
 If I could ever find you
 What would you say or mean? | 2. Disaster strikes again
 We ask you why
 Why don't you ever answer
 Before we die?
 Rich people have the power,
 Live long and well
 Their children play in safety,
 They hear no tolling bell. | 3. O God of every space,
 My heart it cries
 For when I start to question
 You terrify
 The darkness weighs upon me,
 It holds me down
 Your thoughts are way beyond me
 And silent is your sound. |
|--|--|---|

(based especially on Job 21 & 23)